EDUCATORS

JANEL BRANDON

Educator

Janel is passionate about educating others in code and development. With 20 years experience in corporate software development, she is an educator who understands tehcnology and how to explain it to non technical people and novices. She has been an innovator within the tech space with signifcant contributions to technical publications, patons and other contributions.

MATTHEW ETHERINGTON

Educator

Matt has studied, tiaght and worked in devleopment ever since he was 10. His history includes 15 years as an I.T teacher and tutor at the QLD TAFE Institute, freelance and commercial web development as well as mobile applications . He brings decades of knowledge, skills and experience to the education team at Coder Academy.

VARSHA BAPAT

Educator

Varhsa has over 8 years of vast and vaired experience in the IT industry. She has worked as an IT Engineer in Software Development. She also has a strong history with tech education, in being a Subject Matter Expert to Instructional Designers working on eLearnign solutions for Apple Applications as well as an IT trainer to IT professionals and non-IT audiences.Varsha is a strong believer in the STEM system of learning and also has expereicne in educatin school aged children in Game Development.

MATT STUBBS

Educator

Matt has worked in Development all over the world. From working with BBC as a developer in the UK, to starting and successfully selling his own SASS product, he has worked on teams that have produced interactive and engaging content.
'Back in Stock', Matt's SASS development product was recently sold to Shopify, and as such he is now dedicating his time to working with the next generation of developers, sharing his vast knowledge of the industry.

PARTNERSHIPS & STUDENT SERVICES

ASHLEIGH WILSON

Creative Blocks / @annlong

Ashleigh is the QLD Student Services and Partnerships Manager at Coder Academy, liaising with current and potential students whilst also finding ways to maximise their Bootcamp experience. From August 2018, she developed a passion for community outreach and partnerships within the Brisbane tech space and will be seen out and about at meetups and organising Internships.
Passionate about diversity & inclusion, STEM and Women in Tech, Ashleigh is a firm believer in creating a positivity across all areas and doing what she can to continue to help the community as much as possible.

LAURA SEABROOKE

Office Manager and Client Services

Laura is passionate about delivering high quality service to the students and clients of Coder Academy. With her extensive background in working within a range of high ranking Academic Support Services, she ensures that all procedures and encounters with Coder Academy here in Brisbane is only the best.

MICHELLE BRYANT

Educator - STEM Outreach

Michelle was previously a high school maths and science teacher and apart of the STEM Teacher Education Centre for Excellence. Noticing the need for coding expertise to up-skill kids in coding and prepare them for the future, she had career change and completed the Coder Academy Fast track bootcamp. Now she working with Coder Academy to help engage and educate students, parents and teachers in the world of coding.